Hawaii Teachers Love Achieve3000's Professional Services!

"The 'I do, we do, you do' is such fundamental scaffolding. It was good to hear it as a reminder with a real example/model."

"Thank you for sharing, especially from a practical classroom teacher's point of view, how to incorporate this into our current curriculum."

"It helped to have someone so friendly and familiar with people at the school to present and help answer questions. It felt very personal."

For more than 20 years, Achieve3000's literacy solutions have been helping to accelerate learning growth for Hawaii students of all ages. Achieve3000 was recently awarded preferred status with the Hawaii DOE "to support implementation of comprehensive literacy programs and to provide professional development, technical assistance, and specialized support to improve student achievement and literacy development."
